General inquiries

Do I have to confirm my travel insurance?

It will be done automatically.

When will I receive my insurance information?

Reservations with a Non-Refundable/Semiflexible Rate, after a few minutes when you complete your reservation you will receive an email with the information of your cancellation policy, and the day of arrival you will receive an email with the information of your travel assistance policy.

You can check conditions in the confirmation of your booking*

Whom does the insurance cover?

The insurance covers the person who makes the reservation and the accompanying persons.

VERY IMPORTANT! For your companions to be fully covered it is essential that you add them to your reservation on the website <https://app.flexmyroom.com/en/> or else we will have no way of identifying them.

If you are making a booking for a third person, you will also have to do this step so that they are identified.

How long do I have to claim my insurance?

In the event you need to make any claims, the first thing you must do is inform the insurance company. Once you have notified the insurance company, you will have up to 2 years to present the supporting documentation.

Cancellation Insurance

It is valid from the moment of payment of the reservation until the day of arrival.

What is the coverage of my cancellation insurance?

The following amount indicates the maximum reimbursement by the Insurer.

Travel cancellation expenses up to 10.000€ per person

Before the trip, what are the cancellation reasons?

The cancellation fees will be reimbursed to the client as long as it complies with any of the 25 causes that are detailed in the general conditions of the insurance policy. Here we indicate them to you:
